

Daffara & Grasso

Barolo D.O.C.G.

Colour: ruby red tending to garnet.

Bouquet: intense and lasting with notes of violet, leather and spices.

Flavour: clean, good tannins, full-flavoured, astringent but velvety.

Alcohol: 14% vol.

Packaging: box with 6 bottles.

A truly aristocratic wine, ruby red in colour with garnet notes, an intense, lasting bouquet, and a dry, harmonious palate. A good accompaniment for main courses of red meat and game. Serve at a temperature of 18°-20°C: open the bottle an hour beforehand and decant into a carafe.
